

Goshen County, Wyoming • August 21st, 2017

Get out and enjoy the Total Solar Eclipse in the wide open spaces of Goshen County, Wyoming.

No matter where you're headed, Goshen County, Wyoming offers an abundance of simple pleasures set against the backdrop of a vast and historic horizon. Whether your passion is hunting, fishing, exploring history, viewing wildlife, shopping, soaking up authentic western culture, or simply enjoying a break from your travels, you can fuel it in Goshen County. Home to numerous outdoor activities, including horseback riding, fishing, hunting, watching wildlife and hiking, Goshen County is the perfect spot for your 2017 Eclipse Experience.

Rich in history, Goshen County is home to portions of many historical trails such as the Oregon Trail, Mormon Trail, California Trail and the Texas Cattle Drive Trail. Home to the Western History Center and the Homesteaders Museum as well as Fort Laramie National Park, Goshen County is the place to experience the history of the west. Like fairs and rodeos? The Goshen County Fairgrounds is home to many such activities. If you enjoy swimming, check out the City of Torrington's municipal wading pool and swimming pool with water slide. For golfers, the Torrington Golf Course provides 18 challenging holes in a scenic setting. Torrington also has seven public tennis courts and a two-screen movie theater.

There's a lot to see and do in Goshen County, so why not plan an overnight stay? From bed and breakfasts, to motels, to campgrounds, you're sure to find accommodations that meet your preferences and your budget. With a wide variety of restaurants ranging from family-owned to fast food, from American to ethnic, Goshen County offers dining options to appeal to everyone's tastes. Prefer to whet your whistle in the casual atmosphere of a friendly Western bar? You'll find plenty of options in Goshen County.

Many special events are being planned for the Solar Eclipse Celebration, be sure to check in on the website (<http://www.gogoshen.net/goshen>), on Facebook (@eclipse.goshen.wyoming), email us at goshen2017@wyoecclipse.org and with our local Chamber of Commerce (307.532.3879) to stay up to date and plan The Total Experience!

Goshen County has something for everyone!